

HISTORICAL COURIER. 2021. No. 3 (17)Issue Topic:*Soviet Citizens and Europeans – Participants of the Resistance Movement*CONTENTS

From the Editors (Rus.)7

From the Editors8

Resistance Movement in Historiography: Common Ground and Differences in Research Approaches*D. Bißmann.* Soviet Prisoners of War in the French Resistance Movement. Research Perspectives9–15*Ya.A. Falkov.* To Study the Contribution of Kazakhstanis to the Anti-Nazi Underground and Partisan Struggle in Europe: An Attempt to Learn from the Experience of the International Historical Project of the University of Oxford16–24Women in the Resistance Movement*V.K. Klets.* Soviet German Women in the Underground Movement in the Dnepropetrovsk Region25–31*Z.G. Saktaganova.* On the Issue of the Participation of Women of Kazakhstan on the Fronts of the Great Patriotic War32–40*R. Barques.* Epic of the “Rodina” Detachment: on the Activities of the Only Female Partisan Detachment in France41–48*L. Škodrić.* Women in the National Liberation Movement in Serbia (1941–1944)49–58Soviet Prisoners of War and European Resistance Members*M. Ferrentino.* Resistance Movement in Italy: Causes, Dynamics of Development59–68*M.G. Talalay.* Soviet Partisans in North-East Italy69–75*G.M. Mendikulova.* Kazakhs in the European Resistance Movement:
New Documents from Foreign Archives76–94*N.E. Vashkau, P.V. Teplovodskaya.* The Battle of Stalingrad as a Turning Point in the Activities of the Anti-Fascist Group “White Rose”95–102*O.N. Kationov, A.O. Kationova.* Defectors of the Second Hungarian Army During the Battles on the Don in the Fall of 1942 – January 1943 as a Manifestation of European Resistance103–109*E.N. Chetveryakov.* Novosibirsk Archpastor Archbishop Paul (Golyshev) – Member of the Resistance110–116

Military Heroics as a Socio-Cultural Phenomenon

- A.I. Savin.* Heroism, Heroes and Awards: “Heroic Side” of the Great Patriotic War in the Memoirs of Contemporaries117–126
- E. Meier.* The Resistance of the Volga Tatar Prisoners of War in World War II: Heroes in the Transformation of Remembrance127–134
- K.V. Sak.* Participants of the Resistance Movement in France and the Soviet Award Diplomacy (1955–1965)135–146

National Struggle Behind Enemy Lines and on the Fronts of the Great Patriotic War

- Yu.N. Arzamaskin.* Soviet Partisans in the Second World War147–153
- A.A. German.* Contribution of the USSR Germans to Repelling Nazi Aggression During the Great Patriotic War154–163

Post-War Fates of Soviet Prisoners of War and Ostarbeiters

- N.M. Markdorf.* The Fates of Soviet War Prisoners –
Members of the European Resistance Movement164–172
- S. Karner.* On the Issue of Soviet Citizens’ Rationale Behind the Decision to Remain in Austria after World War II173–179

The Great Patriotic War as a “Place of Memory”

- O.V. Kapustina.* Preserving the Historical Memory of the People as a Volunteer Practice180–184
- D.V. Chernov.* Tolerance, Patriotism and Social Well-Being of Modern Students185–190

Open Archives

- O.L. Chernobay.* The Anti-Fascist Underground in the Buchenwald Concentration Camp in the Testimony of N.S. Simakov (1946–1947)191–199