

CONTENTS

From the Editor (in Rus.) 7–8

From the Editor 9–10

■ History, Ideology and Politics

E.S. Kravtsova. “It Has Not Only Historical but also Political Interest”:
Rossica in the USSR in 1929–1941 11–29

A.I. Savin. The Question of the Heroic Personality Role in History and in the Bolshevik Narrative in the 1920s–1930s 30–46

A.M. Dubrovskiy. Ideologeme “Friendship of Peoples” and Historical Science (1930–1950) 47–58

L.A. Sidorov. Actualization of Historical Memory during the Great Patriotic War:
Personal Motivation of Soviet Historians 59–68

A.V. Korenevskiy. Toynbee and the “Armenian Question”:
Political Pragmatics, Moral Principles, Personal Motives 69–79

M. Mellina. Italian Politicians and the Historian Renzo De Felice (1929–1996):
Between Historical Memory and the Political and Electoral Climate 80–89

E.Yu. Kalinina. Memory and Oblivion as Social Constructs in the Transformation of the State-Legal System: The Case of the Transition from Authoritarian Regime to Democracy in Spain (1976–1982) 90–102

N.V. Grishina, V.A. Klamm. Legalized Past: The Role of Historians in the Construction a Historical Narrative (The Case of the Federal Law
“On the Days of Military Glory and Commemorative Dates of Russia”) 103–116

M.K. Churkin, N.I. Churkina. Professional Community of Historians and Representation of Historical Knowledge of the Public Sphere in Russia in the Late 20th – First Quarter of the 21st Century 117–124

■ Historiography Issues. Change of View

V.I. Goldin. The Relationship Between the Authorities and Historians in the Context of the Formation of Historical Memory about the Civil War in Russia 125–138

D.N. Shevelev, I.E. Rogaeva. Civil War in Russia in Historical Memory and Contemporary Historiographical Narratives: Intersection Points of the Last Decade 139–156

V.I. Isaev. Historiography of the Everyday Life of Workers in the USSR in the 1920s–1930s:
From Propaganda to Reality 157–171

O.A. Makhmudov, O.G. Pugovkina. The Revolutionary Events of 1917 in Turkestan:
The Shift of Paradigms and Discourses in Uzbek Science (The End Of 1980s – Early 2020s) 172–185

D.N. Moskalenskaya. Historical Memory of Repression through the Prism of Modern School Education (2014–2024)

186–195

■ Organization of Scientific Research

I.A. Shipilov. The History of Academic and Government Expeditions to Siberia in the 18th Century in the Light of the Relationship between Government and Scientists

196–208

V.V. Tikhonov. Documents of the Archive of the Russian Academy of Sciences on the failed All-Union Meeting on the Preparation of the Multi-Volume “History of the USSR” and the Histories of National Republics (1933–1934)

209–216

T.K. Kholmatov. “The Work Was Suffered because of Personal Relationships”:
Conflict between Ural Historians in the Preparation of “Essays on the history of the Urals”
(“Ocherki Istorii Urala”) (Late 1950s – Early 1960s)

217–226

S.S. Zhanbosinova. Scientific Research Trends of Historical Science of Kazakhstan

227–238

■ Scientific Life

D.O. Nikulin. “Translation of scientific ideas: problems and practices”:
Youth Conference at the Institute of History of the SB RAS

239–241

L.L. Mekhrishvili, V.P. Karpov. Tyumen Region:
History of the Region, Modern Problems, Contours of the Future

242–246